

The image shows the interior of the Feux Vertical Theatre, an event space. In the background, there is a stage with a white backdrop, illuminated by several purple spotlights. The stage is framed by a string of warm white lights. The main area of the room is set up for an event with several round tables covered in black tablecloths, each with a glowing blue spherical light decoration on top. Black folding chairs are arranged around the tables. The ceiling features a complex rig of blue and purple lights. On the right wall, there is a sign that reads "FEUX VERTICAL THEATRE" with a sunburst logo above it. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and modern.
